

Help us design our next library card!

FRANKLIN PARISH LIBRARY WILL CELEBRATE ITS DIAMOND JUBILEE, THE 75TH ANNIVERSARY, IN 2025!

The Franklin Parish Demonstration Library officially opened in 1950 and the tax permanently establishing the library within the parish passed in 1951.

To help the library celebrate 75 years of serving residents of Franklin Parish, residents of all ages are invited to enter the 75th Anniversary Library Card Design Competition! We want the artistic and creative members of our community to help us design our next library card!

WHO CAN ENTER:

Adults, teens, & children throughout Franklin Parish

DETAILS:

- Only one entry per person
- Winner will receive a $200 prize in the form of a gift card donated by generous supporters of Franklin Parish Library
- The original artwork must be submitted (not a copy)
- Have fun! Create your design using pencil, pen, paint, camera, or digital tools.
- Make sure to include “Franklin Parish Library” on the design somewhere/somewhat.
- Library card dimensions are 3.625” x 2.375” but entries may be larger rectangular works that we can scale down during the digitization process.
- Entries must be accompanied by a completed submission form (available at both branches)
- Judges will be comprised of library staff, Board of Control Members, and a panel of library supporters and art enthusiasts from outside of Franklin Parish.

The deadline to turn in your entry is November 15.
