EUNICE HEITMAN COTTON, librarian, pauses in the midst of a behind-the-scenes task, that of keeping the library's financial records in order.

WISNER BRANCH LIBRARY IN 1953 is the scene of this conference. Left to right are Mrs. E. Asa Kiper, vice-president of the library board, Lora Peters Griffin, Mrs. C. R. Adams, Sr. and Mrs. Cotton.

JEVELEAN WILSON works at her desk at Hunter branch library. She is branch assistant.

LIBRARY NEWS & INFORMATION

»»» A LOOK BACK...

If you ever get the chance to look at old newspapers, the ads always seem to be one of the most fascinating pieces because they give you a glimpse into what was popular or important to people at the time. Some of the older papers are difficult to read but still fun to look at. Take a look at a few of the interesting ones we found in the Franklin Sun from March 29, 1884.

Franklin Parish Library is excited to partner with Keep Louisiana Beautiful as a participating library in the #GetDownAndCleanUp program! Using your library card, you can now check out litter clean up supplies, including grabbers, vests, and bags. Grab your friends, play some music, and dance your way to a cleaner Louisiana! Together, we can put litter in its place and #KeepLouisianaBeautiful.

Flower Pressing with KB was such a hit yet again! Thank you all for coming! Stay tuned for our next events with KB and Crossroads Creative!

FRANKLIN PARISH LIBRARY WILL CELEBRATE ITS DIAMOND JUBILEE,
THE 75TH ANNIVERSARY, IN 2025!

The Franklin Parish Demonstration Library officially opened in 1950 and the tax permanently establishing the library within the parish passed in 1951.

To help the library celebrate 75 years of serving residents of Franklin Parish, residents of all ages are invited to enter the 75th Anniversary Library Card Design Competition! We want the artistic and creative members of our community to help us design our next library card!

Turning The Pages With.... Guest Segment

Upon accepting her role as Librarian for the Franklin Parish Demonstration Library in 1950, Ms. Eunice began a column in the Franklin Sun titled "Turning the Pages..." She wrote about new books added to the collection, library changes including the various moves throughout the years, donations made, and even when new patrons signed up for library cards.

We recently received a suggestion that we absolutely loved & would like to incorporate it as regular feature for our monthly newsletter as a nod to Ms. Eunice's "Turning the Pages" segment. Readers, get your pen & paper ready!

We'd love to have patron's stories featured in our newsletter. We'd love to hear about what you're reading, happy stories from across the parish, historical tidbits, craft projects, and other ponderings to include in our newsletter.

Turning the Pages

By Eunice H. Cotton
(Parish Librarian)

We know you have enjoyed the columns written this summer by our library intern, Miss Sandra Shaddock. Miss Shaddock thoroughly enjoyed being in Winnsboro this summer and profited from the internship program. We hope this program will be continued by the Louisiana State Library next year and that we will again be chosen to participate. The interns are chosen very carefully after they submit their school and

WHAT WE'RE READING...

"I just got started with this one so it's hard to say if I'll like it or not. I do like the narrators so far, though!" - Kayla

"Great Gatsby with Vampires!"
-Missy

"This is a delectable grumpy/sunshine book & I'm loving it!" -Missy

"I've just started listening to this. It is the 2nd book of the Me Before You Series. I love the quirkiness of the lead character, Louisa." - Dorothy
